

TOUGH LOVE

FREE FILM SCREENING

+ Q&A with a representative from the Department of Child Services, a current foster parent, and an adult who grew up in the child welfare system

Fighting to reunite with their children, 'Tough Love' chronicles the lives of two parents with cases in the United States child welfare system as they attempt to prove to the courts and the system that they deserve a second chance to be a parent and have a family.

SATURDAY, MAY 27, 1 - 3:30 pm

Gardner Center for the Arts
540 S. Lake St. | Gary, IN 46403

In recognition of National Foster Care Month

Moderated by Elaine Spicer and sponsored by the Institute for Community and Family Resilience