

APRIL 28 – JUNE 2 SO FAR

Nancy Hejna artwork in Exhibit

“So Far” is a sampling of over three decades of work – paintings, drawings, assemblage, and a few sculptural pieces. Two recently published books of essays and poetry which relate to the visual art will also be available. The title “So Far” suggests having arrived somewhere and taking rest. It also implies there’s likely a long way to go. As someone once stated, “No work of art is ever finished. It just rests in interesting places.” As it is in art, so it is in life. I would like to share what I’ve created so far before I hit the road again.

Nancy Hejna is a retired pediatric occupational therapist, residing in the Miller neighborhood of Gary, Indiana, at the southernmost point of Lake Michigan.
